Great products need more than an importer in Europe.

They need someone who knows the market, speaks the language and is there for customers on site.

RoboticMeet connects manufacturers from China and Asia with companies in Europe – from the first demonstration to after-sales service.

OUR SERVICES

Everything to enter Europe, from one partner.

Sales and distribution

Lead generation, meetings and sales to businesses across Europe.

Localisation

Website, product sheets and manuals in German and other European languages.

CE and compliance

Coordination of CE documents and EU requirements with certified testing bodies.

On-site demonstrations

Live demos at customer sites, events and European trade fairs.

After-sales coordination

First point of contact for your customers' questions, onboarding and service.

Digital sales tools

Landing pages and AI-powered tools that turn interest into enquiries.

A base at the heart of Europe.

One market, 27 countries

Benelux, France and the DACH region are a few hours from Düsseldorf.

Growing demand

Labour shortages in hospitality, retail, logistics and care drive automation.

Trust is built locally

Customers expect contacts, documents and service in their own language.

27

EU markets, one point of contact

Shenzhen → Düsseldorf, approx. 9,100 km

HOW WE WORK TOGETHER

Four steps to your representation in Europe.
